Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give away more than a merchant can take over his counter free gifts of dry goods, hardware, etc., etc., in the legitimate business concern. Its editor, however, is not to be paid for, and advertisements should be paid for, no matter in what part of the paper they appear.

Judge Wadsworth Wouldn't Have Any Key-Business in His Court.

There was a civil suit in Judge Wadsworth's Court yesterday.

Mr. John Ballenger had sued Mr. Wey Vicroy for a small account.

Lawyer Thomas M. Wood appeared for Mr. Ballenger and Mr. Vicroy was his own Attorney.

The first thing the latter did was to demand a Special Judge, and Mr. L. W. Galbraith was chosen.

Mr. Vicroy entered into the trial, and filed an affidavit which was declared insufficient for its purpose.

Thereupon he died another, stating that he couldn't get justice before L. W. Galbraith, and asking a change of venue.

Mr. Galbraith, after saying he didn't want to serve, asked Judge Wadsworth to order another election, which he declined to do after defendant had already entered into the trial before Mr. Galbraith.

At this point Mr. Galbraith himself directed the Chief of Police to summon members of the Bar to choose another Special Judge.

Mr. Vicroy demanded that the members of the Bar generally be summoned.

Judge Wadsworth inquired if it was possible that Mr. Vicroy was to dictate to the Court, who should or what should not be done, and announced that such a thing should not obtain in his Court.

He stepped to the Bench as Mr. Galbraith slid off, and said he would assert his prerogative just one time anyhow, and informed Mr. Vicroy in plain English that he would try the case.

Being asked if he was ready Mr. Vicroy picked up his hat, and saying "I am not before this Court," he proceeded to make good that declaration by walking out.

Mr. Ballenger took the witness stand and was soon given judgment for his claim.

What a lot of fun there is in the law!

KENTUCKY REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

Adopted at Louisville, Aug. 10th, 1861.

Resolved, by the Republican party in Convention assembled—

First.—That we reaffirm the principles of the Republic, as set forth in the platform adopted by it at the Louisville Convention.

Second.—That we endorse the Republican National and State Administrations, and commend the action of our present state officials in their efforts to suppress, and violence and to preserve the national credit of the state.

Third.—We demand the action of a representative of the Republican party in the passage of a Tariff Bill which will raise revenue sufficient to support the Government, prevent the issue of interest-bearing bonds, protect American labor and maintain the neutrality of our country.

Fourth.—We are opposed to a system of Civil Service which builds up an official class, and preserves a lifetime tenure, and which is antagonistic to the public welfare, and we demand that the Civil Service be modified so as to limit the terms of service to four years, with the privilege of re-renomination, promotion, subject to such examinations as will be competent, and give to every section of the country a proper proportion of them.

Fifth.—We oppose to a system of Civil Service which builds up an official class, and preserves a lifetime tenure, and which is antagonistic to the public welfare, and we demand that the Civil Service be modified so as to limit the terms of service to four years, with the privilege of re-renomination, promotion, subject to such examinations as will be competent, and give to every section of the country a proper proportion of them.

Sixth.—We demand the action of a representative of the Republican party in the passage of a Tariff Bill which will raise revenue sufficient to support the Government, prevent the issue of interest-bearing bonds, protect American labor and maintain the neutrality of our country.

Seventh.—We favor the passage of a law that will protect the laborers of Kentucky from the competition of convict labor, and, if necessary, to accomplish said result, an amendment to the Constitution permitting such legislation.

The best way to get rid of a bad law is to enforce it.—General Grant.

Therefore THE LEDGER favors the rigid enforcement of the Civil Service Law.

The refusal of United States Marshals and Internal Revenue Collectors to reappoint Deputies who are in the classified service has caused the Civil Service Commission to be delayed with complaints from the Deputies. The Sivil Service Mugwumps will be "deluged" with something more potent than complaints when the voters line up to choose the next Congress.

The figures of the exports from the United States for July show an increase over the corresponding month last year of about $4,300,000. The domestic exports last year were the largest in our history. The total exports in July were $69,255,770. The exports for the first seven months of the calendar year were $549,943,870, against $500,572,005 for the first seven months of last year. The exports of agricultural products show a slight decrease during the period, while those of manufactured products increased.

The rally Sunday afternoon was very well attended, and all left with a hearty appreciation of the music and of the service generally. Mr. James B. Wood read several passages touching upon the subject "Ambassadorship for Christ," and then made a brief, informal talk, closing by quoting from Kingsley. His was an excellent subject, and he brought forth some good thought in connection with it. The piano solo by Mrs. Randolph Madison was exquisitely rendered, and the duet by Misses Osborne and Bacon was very enjoyable.

The regular meeting of the Directors will be held tonight in the parlor, beginning at 7:15 sharp.

The Courier is having a hard time of it. Between the sandbars and fog she managed to get in about five hours late each day.

Hardly anything in the river save sandbars, and they are looming like mountains. Only 2 feet 5 inches at Pittsburgh, 3 feet 6 inches at Cincinnati, 4 feet 3 inches at the gauge at this point registers 3 6 6. Captain J. M. Gamble, Master and owner of the steamer Will J. Cummins, will start the Cummins in the Portsmouth trade, leaving Cincinnati Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays. The Cummins is a very light boat and is well adapted for the Portsmouth trade.

On account of the present low water in the river it was found necessary to have the Lizzie Bay and Henry M. Stanley exchange places. The Lizzie Bay, owned by the steamer John C. Robinson, was to be sold to the steamer Spout's Springs, was accidentally shot and killed by her older brother John, while carelessly handling a rifle.

SPRINGDALE SPLITTERS.

*A Writer Who Hears to the Line, Regardless
Where the Chops Fall.*

A large crowd attend'd at the baptizing near Bethany Sunday evening, where the young evangelist, Robert Tolle of Maysville, baptized eight converts.

Springdale was all excitement Saturday
over a accidental shooting. W. H.
Cobb while placing a pistol in a box, let it fall. The ball took effect in the heart of his son, George Cobb. The ball entered near the lower edge of the breast-bone, passing upward, lodged near the collar bone, and was extracted by Dr.
Winder. The wound, though painful, is not considered dangerous.

Piano Playing Made Easy

To play music in any key other than that in which it is written is difficult for most performers.

Norris & Hyde Pianos

instantly transpose any song to suit any voice. They are the only pianos which transpose a full chromatic octave. With them any player can just as easily play any piece in any or all other keys as in the original key, and any singer can sing any song in exactly that key in which the voice sounds best. Instrumentalists may play in any key easiest for them.

This adds great value to these instruments, which are also superior in all other respects. They suit the most exacting critic, and are endorsed by prominent musicians everywhere. Any child can operate the Movable Key-board, and it cannot be gotten out of order. While pre-eminently instruments for the home, voice teachers, singers, churches, schools, and theaters, find them an indispensable convenience. Our Catalogue No. 63 tells all about them. Send for it free.

We are also

FAIR NOTES.

Some of the Attractions The Maysville Fair Offers to Patrons.

The grounds are being cleaned, the buildings got ready, and everything will be in ship-shape for the opening day, Tuesday, September 21st, which is the premier day of the annual fair, the magnificent arraignment day as the shows and Fair proper begin Wednesday morning at 10 a.m. Exhibitors please be prompt in entering their goods this day (Tuesday)
with Superintendent of Floral Hall.

Mr. Harry C. Curran, Superintendent of the Floral Hall, will be on the grounds Tuesday morning at 8:30 for the purpose of receiving goods for the Floral Hall.
Patrons will bear in mind and be prompt
that everything may be in order and no delay occasioned.

Do not forget the delightful attractions already booked for Maysville's Fair—a complete Wild West Show, a balloon ascension each day, and double balloon races, a high wire walker, and a hippodrome show, to say nothing of the baby racks, the cane racks, the merry go round, the peanuts, and the red lemonade, and other accessories found only in first-class exhibitions. Always keep in mind the date, September 22d to 25th.

Have you seen the catalogue? It is a capital book with high-class printing, but it contains a more liberal showing of premises which it will pay you as a housekeeper or owner to examine.
Write to Secretary William H. Fremont
for examination.

The chances are flattering for a visit from our neighboring City Bands. They have been invited to guests of the Company, and it is hoped that nothing will interfere to have them accept.

The "Merchant's Bazaar" idea is a popular scheme and our Floral Hall will be a miniature exposition. Our local merchants take pride in doing whatever they do in the best manner, and the exhibit of boudoirs, parlor, dining-room, kitchen, chaises close and bath will be a flat complete, elegant and perfect in appointment. The floral display will have some sharp competitors this year, and the domestic side will show more kinds of bread, cakes, jellies, pickles and fruits than very likely ever were assembled in Floral Hall.

The Kimball Co.'s exhibit promises a great deal of fine music, a pianist having been engaged to make sweet the air with choice sounds.

A fact which cannot be too often emphasized relates to the admission fee. Remember town people and friends outside that the nominal cost of 25 cents admits you absolutely, no extra charge for grand-stand seats. Now we hope this emphatic statement will dispel any doubt, and that any past experience
to the contrary may not be a judgment of the future.
